Nomination Form for 2021 P&C Committee Positions

The Kings Langley P&C Association is a volunteer association which aims to support the students of Kings Langley Public School by raising money for valuable resources for the school. The P&C is entirely run by parents, carers, grandparents and friends who contribute their skills and time to make Kings Langley Public School a great school.

All P&C financial members get to have a say in the running of the P&C and how funds are spent. Committee members help to coordinate and run the P&C events and fundraisers. P&C committee members attend one to two meetings per month during school terms.

The committee positions are elected at the Annual General Meeting on 15 March 2021.
